Professional statement

IAs someone who is committed to cyber security, with an interest in penetration testing and an eagerness to learn more about programming, I am keen to work with a company that will allow me to sharpen my current skills while continuing to grow and learn new facets of this career. I value ethics and am committed to upholding information privacy and finding solutions that will positively affect an organization and the people it serves.